GASTON'S LITTLE TRUCK

CÉLINE CLAIRE • SÉBASTIEN CHEBRET

Your tractor goes “clunk clunk clunk”? Your bike goes “hiiissss”? Don’t worry, Gaston is always around to help you fix it and get it back on the road! A little oil here, a turn of the wrench there, there, you’re all set!

But what if Gaston’s little truck isn’t running properly itself?

A colorful and rhythmic board book by Céline Claire and illustrated by Sébastien Chebret that will charm kids who love vehicles.

WHAT A COSTUME!

ROXANE BROUILLARD • ÉMILIE PROULX

How to dress up as this Halloween?

As a robot, a firefighter, or a slimy super-mutant? To get the courage to face the dark and scare away the monsters, it's best to choose the scariest costume possible.

Yet, no matter the costume you wear, the shadows, pumpkins, and haunted houses will surely arise worries. Luckily, your friends are there to reassure you and help you collect candy without fear.

GRANNY KEEPS HER CARDS CLOSE TO HER CHEST

JEAN-BAPTISTE DROUOT

Grandpa shares his memories with his granddaughter, including how he met Grandma. All along his story, he describes Grandma's personality and how she spent her days while he was working, as he was working a lot. Grandma would stay quietly at home doing "grandma things," like sewing, reading books and that sort of thing.

But what Grandpa doesn't know is that Granny is very good at keeping her cards close to her chest...

STUCK IN A GLASS!

ORBIE

"Alphonse is a little messy. In his home, there are things everywhere. But he knows where everything is and he likes it that way." Until his messiness becomes the reason for his misfortune when he hurries to answer the phone and stumbles, ending up with his head stuck... in a glass! Incapable of getting out on his own, Alphonse resigns himself and asks his neighbor Cécile for help. She bows to the task and asks Isidore for backup, then Marielle, then the garage in town. No chance of going unnoticed! Soon, everyone is alerted to Alphonse's misfortune and uses boundless imagination to try to get him out of the glass.

THE GUARD DOG
OLIVIER DUPIN
ÉLODIE DUHAMEAU

"In the meadow, the situation is serious. The sheep have gathered around their leader, Claude, because truly, the situation is very serious!" The herd of sheep keeps getting attacked. Claude suggests hiring a guard dog, which is a very good idea. The only problem is that on the wolves' side, they also have some very good ideas. Johnny-Wolf and his son Johnny-Cub prepare a plan to gobble up a large number of sheep. It remains to be seen whether Johnny-Cub will be able to stick to the plan right to the end.

IT'S TOO MUCH WORK!
VINCENT GUIGUE
LOÏC MÉHÉE

"I always dreamed of having a cat, but my parents didn't want one, they always said: 'Oh no, it's too much work!'"

Like many parents, the ones in this book end up changing their minds, and give a cute little kitten to their son. But the little boy will soon discover that having a cat isn't just about having fun. It actually takes a lot of responsibility. You have to feed it, take care of it, wash it... Thanks to his cat, he'll acquire all kinds of skills and realize at the same time, all that his parents do for him and the work that comes with caring for a child.

FURBALL
MICHAËL
ESCOFFIER • BÉRENGÈRE DELAPORTE

Furball runs in his circles, and he counts each turn: "228... 229... 230...". He is devising a plan to make it outside and frolic in freedom. To him clover, alfalfa and wildflowers! But will Furball succeed? The little hamster, born of Michaël Escoffier's imagination, dreams of freedom and wide open spaces. An album that reminds us that moments of complete freedom and a tranquil home can sometimes go hand in hand.

THE ANTHILL
MICHAËL ESCOFFIER
AGATHE BRAY-BOURRET

"This is the ideal spot to build our grand anthill. Let's get to work!" exclaims the queen ant. Could it be that this ideal spot isn't so ideal after all? Nonetheless, no one dares upset the queen! So, the ants work tirelessly, day and night, while their sovereign lounges in the sun with a drink in hand. "It's time to build the biggest anthill in the history of ants!" Nothing will stop them! Or will it...?

Un superhéros (ou une superhéroïne!) ne naît généralement pas avec son pouvoir.

C'est souvent
UN PERSONNAGE ORDINAIRE

qui vit sa vie sans se douter de ce qui va lui arriver. C'est parfois un adolescent, un scientifique ou, comme ici, une simple patate...

Le héros va alors découvrir que cet accident a fait naître en lui

DES SUPERPOUVOIRS !

Certains volent, d'autres se transforment en monstre vert, deviennent invisibles ou indestructibles.

Le superhéros va prendre conscience que ses pouvoirs peuvent servir à faire le bien.

THE SCULPTOR AND THE RED WARRIORS

LAURENT PINABEL

Following Le Guerrier Massai (The Maasai Warrior), 2022, mixing fiction and autobiography centered on a wooden statue brought back from Africa, Laurent Pinabel brings new life into the sculpture that inhabited so intensely his youth.

The fictional story of the sculptor Mùoti takes us in the plains of Africa, where we meet six Maasai warriors. They reveal to us their lives, centered on their community and marked by different stages and responsibilities.

THE VAL-MORIN TIGER
AGATHE BRAY-BOURRET

When Clara finds herself alone, she enjoys dressing up with makeup. Today, she will be a tiger. Wearing her old tiger-print sweater and orange and black makeup, she goes out to meet her friend Annie, whom she usually sees during her summer visits to her grandmother's. Clara is shy and introverted. Her head is full of worries, doubts, and stories she makes up. On her way to her friend's house, she forgets her costume, and misunderstandings follow one after another at the speed of light. A tiger stalks the small village of Val-Morin. Chased by everyone, the little girl takes refuge in the forest where she finds a new family... before returning to her own, equipped with a brand new story.

THIERRY LENAIN
LAURENT PINABEL

Julie Good-for-Nothing had only one phrase on her lips ever since her mother had passed away: "I'm good-for-nothing."

And everyone around her seemed all too happy to remind her, often mocking her for it. One winter evening, on her way home from school, Julie decided to walk to the cemetery. There, at her mother's grave, she found herself surrounded by seven black cats who revealed to her that love transcends death—that her mother hadn't left because she didn't love her but because she was burdened by a painful story that poisoned her soul. Could this newfound understanding help Julie Good-for-Nothing become Julie Good-for-Everything?

GRANDMA'S EARS
CHRISTINE NADEAU
GABRIELLE MORRISSEAU

"My grandma Mimi is very busy. She listens to people all day long. She says she lends them her ears to relieve them." Mimi introduces all sorts of things. She invites her grandson to listen carefully, to be patient, to take an interest in nature and the world around him. This little boy knows he can count on his grandmother. But this beautiful relationship also teaches him empathy. The day his grandmother Mimi is sad, this little boy knows how to welcome her and bring her some comfort.
